Show Judge

Garth
Rancier

Garth, with his wife Angela, are the fourth generation at Rancier Farms, Killam, Alberta. They, along with their two children, Kade and Abby, maintain a purebred and percentage black and red Simmental cow herd, and grain farm. Garth and Angela exhibit cattle at many of the major fall shows in Canada, and have been fortunate to breed and exhibit numerous breed and national champions with the highlight being awarded Supreme Champion 4 times at Farmfair International and breeding and exhibiting the first Simmental Female to win the RBC Supreme at Canadian Western Agribition. Fitting cattle has also taken Garth to many shows across Canada, the United States and Argentina. Garth is also past President of the Canadian Simmental Association

Garth has enjoyed judging shows across Canada and Mexico. He has judged breed and national shows from coast to coast including shows at Canadian Western Agribition, Farmfair International, Toronto Royal, Lloydminster Stockade Roundup, Calgary Stampede, Maritime Fall Fair in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Expo Boeuf in Victoriaville, Quebec, and Brandon Fall Fair, as well as numerous junior and 4-H shows.

Rancier Farms markets females annually at the Friday Night Lights and the Camrose Country Classic female sales in December, and bulls in the Maxwell/Rancier Bull Sale the end of February. Semen and embryos are also sold throughout the year.
